STORMTECH®

Nostromo Thermal Shell

X-2 | X-2W

The Nostromo Thermal Shell is built for rugged outdoor performance in unpredictable weather. Featuring an H2XTREME® waterproof, breathable outer shell, it efficiently releases moisture while the PFC-Free water-repellent finish repels rain and snow. Stormtech Thermolex™ high-loft synthetic down delivers exceptional warmth without added bulk, while articulated elbows provide enhanced mobility for active pursuits. The adjustable hem and hood ensure a secure fit in changing conditions. Lightweight yet durable, this shell is designed to keep you protected and comfortable during extended adventures in the elements.
