CODE

Representando con delicadeza las heterogeneidades del hormigón, la colección Code busca convertirse en un recurso decorativo propio a través de los matices de su diseño.

Junto con la colección Woodcode, que es una interpretación de maderas nobles cuya singularidad recae en la sutileza de los nudos y detalles de cada pieza, consiguen transmitir toda la calidez de la madera natural y uniformidad visual del hormigón, ampliando el espacio.

By delicately representing the heterogeneities of concrete, the Code collection seeks to become a decorative resource in its own right through the nuances of its design.

Together with the Woodcode collection, which is an interpretation of hardwoods whose uniqueness lies in the subtlety of the knots and details of each piece, it conveys all the warmth of natural wood and the visual uniformity of concrete, expanding the space.

La collection Code, qui représente délicatement les hétérogénéités du béton, prétend se convertir en une ressource décorative propre grâce aux nuances de son décor.

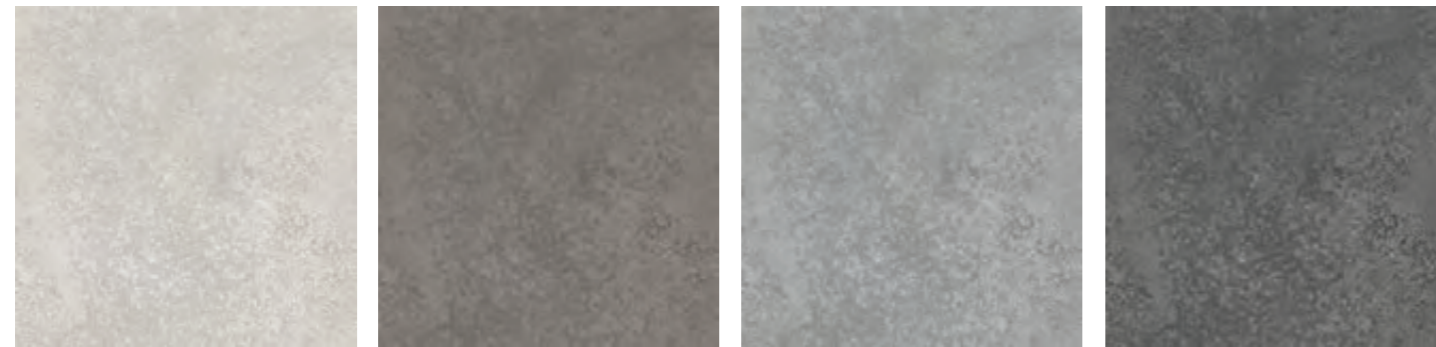

En l'associant à la collection Woodcode, qui est une interprétation de bois nobles dont la singularité réside dans la subtilité des nœuds et des détails de chaque pièce, il est possible de transmettre toute la chaleur du bois naturel et l'uniformité visuelle du béton et ainsi agrandir l'espace.
